

Fruitfulness on the frontline. Week 3. "Making Good Work"

BOTTOM LINE: God cares about everything that we do. He wants to use our everyday work to bring glory to Himself and to bless others.

OBJECTIVE: We all have things to do, and they all matter to God. He wants us to do everything in service and worship to Him.

THE BIG QUESTION...

Find a blank piece of paper and with your child come up with a list of things that they do each week... might be things from school, jobs they have at home, music or sports practice. They can write these on to post-it notes to then go and stick on the paper, or you can just get them to write directly on the paper

We all have things that we have to do. But does God really care about that stuff?

Talk about the memory verse: Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart as working for the Lord.... Colossians 3:23

Does God care about how well I make my bed?
Or how careful I am to do all of my homework?

What jobs or activities do you find hard to do?
How would it be if you did that activity as if it was at God's request?

If you were to make a goal this week about one particular thing you want to work at for God, what would it be?

KEY PASSAGE: Genesis 37-45 Story of Joseph - read from a children's Bible or watch on link below.

Joseph knew God was with him even when he was alone.

He worked in Egypt for Potiphar and for Pharaoh.

He worked hard and God helped him.

This saved his family, God's people.
